Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Mike Evans is retiring after 41 years of splendid service to the people of South Dakota and the entire midwest as an employee of Northwestern Bell Telephone Company; and,

WHEREAS, Mike Evans has gained the respect, admiration, and friendship of everyone he has worked with during his impressive career; and,

WHEREAS, Mike has graciously endured the orbital dialoguing, creative decision avoidance and dynamic inaction of 105 legislators, one governor and countless thousands of lobbyists every legislative session for the past six years; and,

WHEREAS, Mike Evans has also volunteered many thousands of hours in work and effort for several civic and charitable organizations and greatly improved his community and state through those efforts; and,

WHEREAS, Mike Evans has been an inspiration to his many friends by being a wonderful husband for his wife, Pat, and a loving parent for their children, Teresa and Kathleen; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that his friends and fellow lobbyists gather together to honor and give thanks to Mike; and,

WHEREAS, It is also fitting and proper that the 688,217 citizens of the great State of South Dakota recognize this special occasion and honor Mike:

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW AND LOWELL C. HANSEN, II, Governor and Lt. Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, March 14, 1981, as

MIKE EVANS DAY

In South Dakota and join with Mike's friends in wishing him joy, happiness and our sincerest congratulations on his retirement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hands and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, In Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of March, In the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

LOWELL C. HANSEN, II, LT. GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE

DATE MICROFILMED
CAMERA OPERATOR